THELMA WELLS HOSTS THIRD ANNUAL PICNIC AT THE LAKE:

A TIME OF REJOICING AND REJUVENATION

Dallas, Texas – Saturday, August 30, promises to provide a much-needed oasis for women parched from the hot demands of summer: kids home from school, family vacations, dirty floors, open doors, and shopping trips—with baggage. Where does one go to escape summer’s hectic hotbox? To Thelma Wells’ third annual Picnic at the Lake.

Pack your sunscreen and your favorite straw hat; add your camera and slip on your sandals; pick up your girlfriends and head out for a day of relaxation and spiritual restoration at Thelma Wells’ lake house in Bluff Dale, Texas. Guests are welcome for breakfast at 8 am, a Texas-style BBQ lunch at Noon, and refreshments served until 4 pm.

Enjoy a quiet drive to a small, quaint town with a lovely lake view, and sit under the shade while listening to Thelma Wells (a.k.a., Mama T) inspire, empower, and encourage women to “bee their best in Christ.” Philippians 4:13

Here is what previous picnic-goers say about Mama T's Picnic at the Lake:

“Last year's Picnic at the Lake was not just another conference, but an awesome move of the Holy Spirit. The ministry of the guest speakers and the worship is more than a blessing.” Mrs. Tiffanie Willis

“[The Picnic was] a mountaintop experience of true worship and praise, in the beauty of His creation.” Symphuel Anderson

“I saw unity among women from different races and backgrounds. I truly saw one church.” Patricia Scott

So, gather your girlfriends for a short trip to a summer oasis on Saturday, August 30. No passport required. For more refreshing tips about the Picnic and to register, visit thelmawells.com/picnic
